Always in His Peace

Dear Friends in Christ,

Double good news, Fr. Nimo will be with us for the Richmond Hills Fundraiser for his student scholarships on August 17th. He will be able to stay with us and celebrate daily Mass on Thursday and Friday and also the 5:30 pm Saturday and 8:30 am Sunday masses. Then he's off to Africa and his work seeking vocations for his religious order, the SMA's. Also, Fr. Paulin has secured his visa and will be coming to be with us once he makes his travel arrangements, most likely in September. When I know the specifics, you will too.

More good news, MOLOP's Bountiful Harvest Gala tickets are selling very well, but you can still get your ticket to have a chance to win money and help reduce MOLOP's debt (great act of goodness). And you get a chance at the grand prize of $ 10,000. I personally invite SMG parishioners to "help me out here" and for $100 get a full ticket or for 10, 25 or 50 dollars get a "share" of a ticket. You can see me to purchase your ticket or share. This year we are striving to sell our maximum number of tickets, which is 500. So, you have a 1 in 500 chance of winning big and a great chance of winning something.

And lest I neglect our readings for this week, our Gospel passage is one of my favorites. It follows last week's passage on the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. At Jesus' bidding, Peter is walking on water. But with the fierce winds becomes afraid and starts to sink. He cries out, "Lord, save me." And Jesus does. He always does, always will, no matter what. All we have to do is pray to him--to cry out!

Always in the Peace of the Risen Lord,

Father Jim

P.S. Don't forget about the ADA!

P.S. Get your ticket now to the Richmond Hills Theater

Fundraiser for Fr. Nimo and Scholarships for his Children.

They are $12.50 each.

Only 134 tickets can be sold (They took 30 seats out to make room for an orchestra).

If you can not attend, you may wish to give a donation to "Fr. Nimo's Scholarship Fund"

Scholarship for Fr. Nimo's Pygmie students

$250 Scholarship for tuition & room & board for one academic year.

$50 will help provide uniforms & other proper clothing for one student.
